EMOTIONAL AND SPIRITUAL CARE

TO INDIVIDUALS, COUPLES AND FAMILIES
FACING A LIFE THREATENING ILLNESS

Look at thoughts, feelings, questions, and fears.
Explore the many decisions one must face.
Encounter illness and death as a meditation upon life.
Prepare emotionally and spiritually for death.
Assist families in sharing information, feelings,
and needs with one another.
Offer healing for emotional and spiritual pain.
Explore who we are in the face of illness and death
and articulate the meaning of our life.
Deepen spiritual relationships and practices.

Connee offers home visits for appointments,
when individual physical needs make it impossible to travel and /or it is best for the family.

VIGIL AND THE DYING PROCESS

Offer emotional and spiritual care.
Provide spiritual presence, coma therapy,
and other healing modalities to the dying individual.
Teach family members emotional and spiritual ways
to care for their loved one.
Name the process and offer reassurance and encouragement.
Create sacred space and honor the sacred journey of living and dying.
Offer ritual and blessing.

Vigil support is offered, wherever the individual resides,
whether at home, in the hospital, or a facility.

GRIEF SUPPORT

Offer support, counseling, and spiritual care
to family members throughout the process.
